Project Road Map

A Non-Statutory Public Consultation

B Desk top Studies

C Map Constraints

D Alternative Sites Assessment
Phase One - Preliminary Outcomes Report

E Non-Statutory Public Consultation

F Environmental Studies

G Alternative Sites Assessment & Route Selection Report (Phase Two*): Emerging Preferred Sites & Routes

Where we are now

H Non-Statutory Public Consultation (Phase Three*)

I Environmental Studies

J Alternative Sites Assessment & Route Selection Report (Phase Four): Emerging Preferred Site & Routes

K Environmental Studies

L Environment Impact Assessment

N Public Engagement and Statutory Consultation
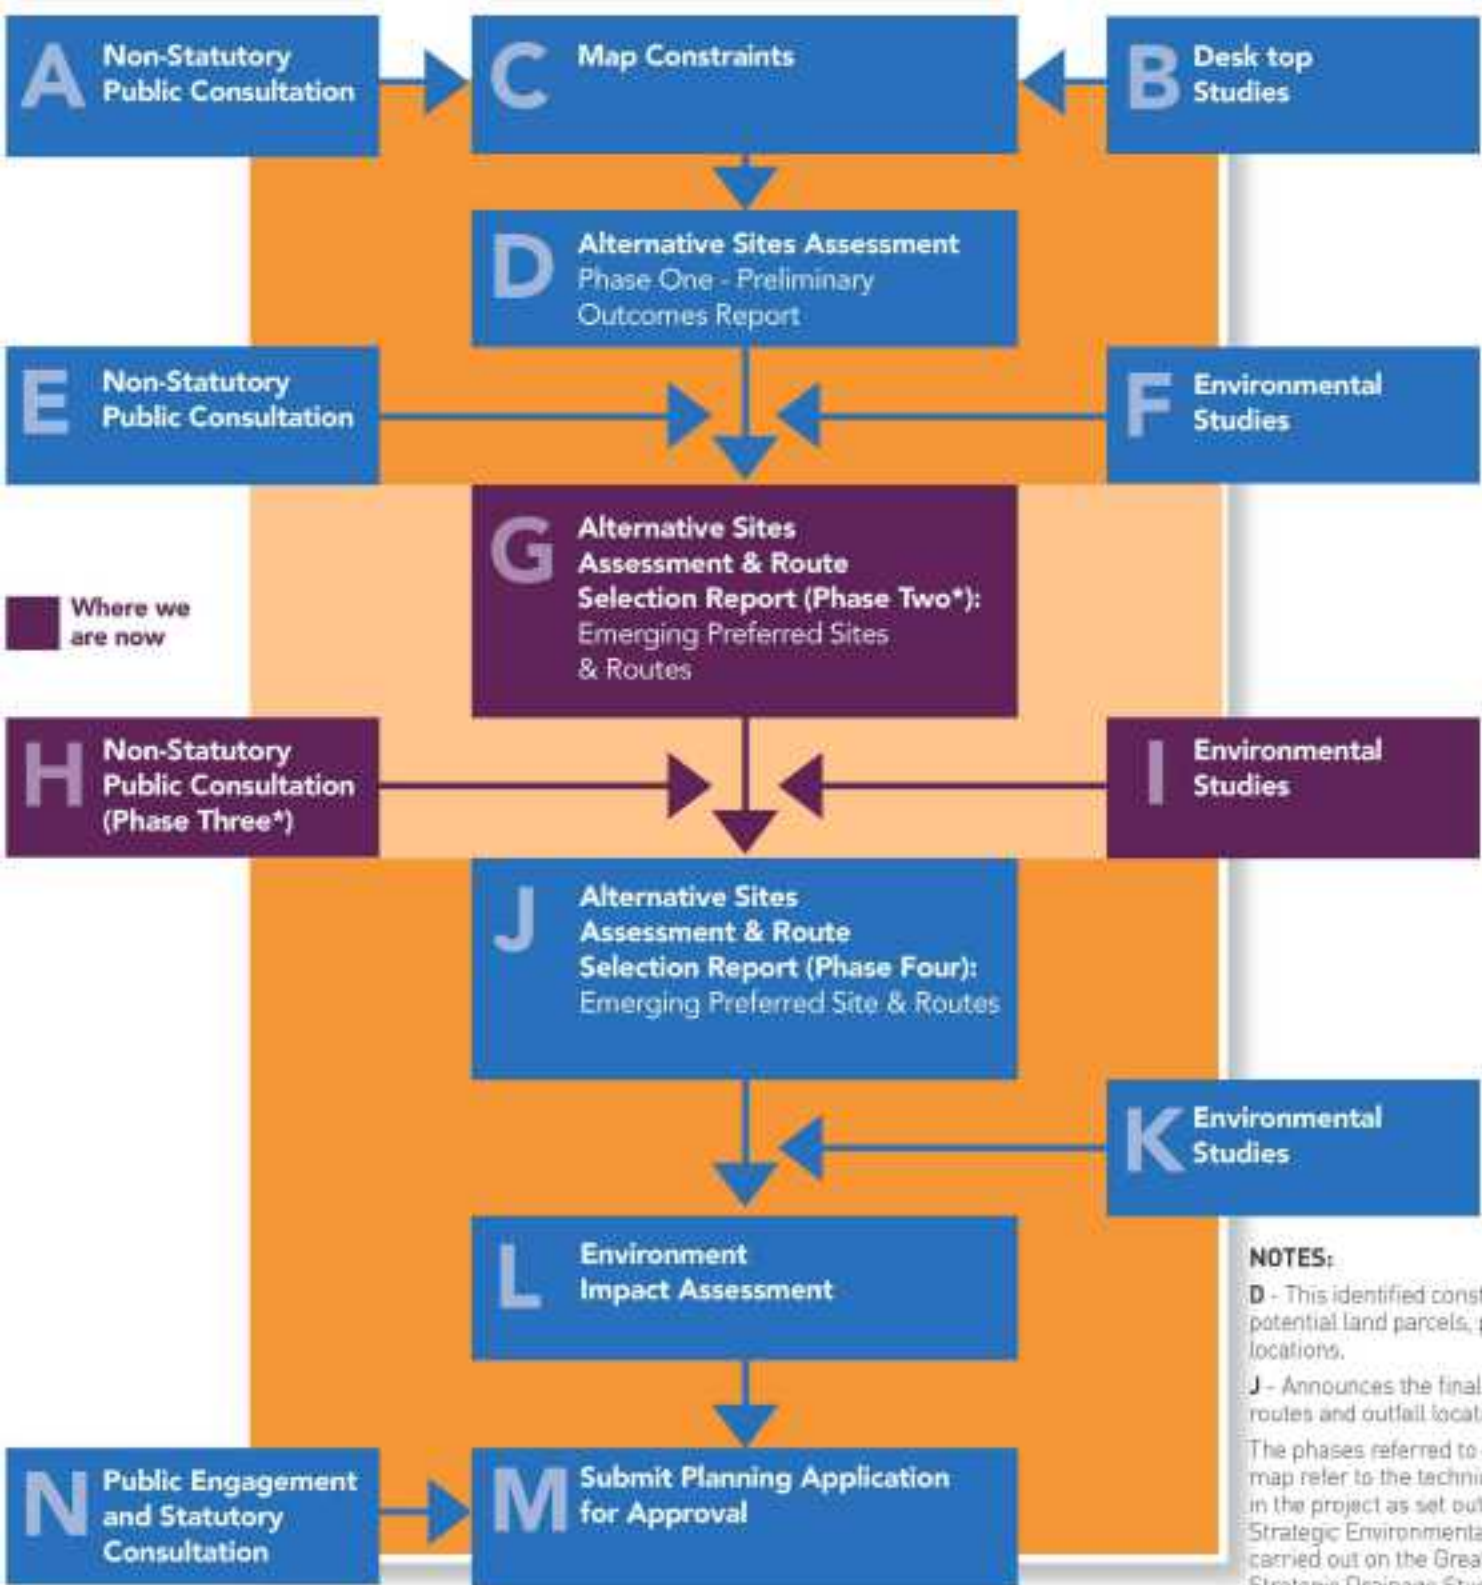

M Submit Planning Application for Approval

NOTES:

D - This identified constraints, potential land parcels, pipeline locations.

J - Announces the final site, pipeline routes and outfall location.

The phases referred to on the road map refer to the technical phases in the project as set out by the 2008 Strategic Environmental Assessment carried out on the Greater Dublin Strategic Drainage Study.

*Phase 3 refers to Public Consultation (H)